DEADLINE:

There is no application deadline, but classes will be filled on a first-come, first-serve basis. We recommend applying early to insure a place in the class. Walk-ins will be accepted if space is available. Other clinicians may be hired to teach additional classes if enrollment exceeds maximum class size.

GUIDELINES:

- Students must bring their own music, music stand and a pencil. (see www.tmea.org for music requirements)
- Students must bring their own snacks, if desired.
- Please mail your completed application and check payable to “HASSA” to:
Mary Bell, 1202 Barrowgate Dr., Sugar Land, TX 77478
- After September 15, do not mail your application. Please register at the door. You may e-mail mdbell@alltel.net to confirm openings for the classes.
- Participants will be notified only by e-mail of their acceptance in the workshop, or if any classes are already full. Please include your e-mail address on application form and PRINT CLEARLY.
- To receive the discounted rate, your teacher must be an active HASSA member and you must have paid your family membership dues. Contact your teacher or visit www.hassa.org for information. You will not be given the discounted rate if your teacher has not registered your membership online and paid your family membership dues in advance of registering for this workshop.
- There will be no refunds unless the application is not accepted due to space limitations.
